Mission Statement and Vision –

- Skip for today
- Suspend until June
- June agenda discussion on form 700 and disclosure, working on getting clarity. People who work for the county vs the ones who don’t, make everyone aware of how that’s going.

VII. Child Abuse Prevention Efforts –

- CAPC has been catalyst or convener for different things in Monterey County.
- Parent Ed. need not as prevalent.
- Schools and Education are doing their own Parent Education training.
- South County in most need of Parent Ed.
- As of July 1st CalWORKs will do their own contracts for parenting. No more funding from CAPC necessary.
- Anything funded by CAPIT has to be evidence based or promising practice. Our two Parent Education trainers Laura Valdez Chavez (south county) and Eduardo Eizner will continue next year and are working on their curriculum.
- Speakers in June: Michelle House - Cannabis Program Health Dept. & Dr. Close - Prescribe Safe on Opiate issue.

- Restarting the Child Death Review Team to include Near death, working on planning meeting with Nick Kennedy.
- 2021 Board start looking into next area to take/focus on, any other topic needs from our communities for board to start prioritizing.
- Julie Altman suggests to explore the area of adequate numbers of staff to recruit and retain.
- Laura Neal mentions to put on the table the topic of Intimate Partner Violence.
- Dr. Lara points out yearly case reviews done with young ladies married off by their families with adult partners who do not speak Spanish or English – find community partners do a by-national coalition to educate about US laws.

VIII. Addition for discussion

- Topics/Content areas for future discussion: Intimate Partners, ACEs, Professional Workforce Development, REI.
- Discuss how to take whatever focus area content we come together and decide upon and also view it through a lens of equity and making sure to create access to that information and supportive services to all members of our community and really looking at our South County region which consistently has limited access to resources.

Any last comments, questions, items? None. Another full meeting, thank you everyone for attending this meeting.

5:06 p.m. Officially adjourn our CAPC meeting for the month of April by Chair Marni Sandoval.
