VII. Status Reports

Breakfast re-cap –

- Received tons of positive feedback about the breakfast
- Possibly utilize the non-allocated CAPC fund now that there are educational components
- Everyone loved the video
- The awards flowed well - Colleen Stanley and Steve Duran did fabulous
- Claudia Gomez shared, her nominees were honored and grateful and really enjoyed the experience

Car Seats/Beds –

- The car seats and small beds have been ordered (some stored in Ginger's office, the rest at warehouse, delivered as needed)
- $500 remaining balance
- Submitted to finance for processing

VIII. New Business

Welcome Sean Hughes from Social Change Partners–

- Eva Jeronimo provides a summary –
FCS is working towards creating a prevention plan that is as comprehensive as possible for families in Monterey County. This work is being done through our Interagency Leadership Team (ILT) meeting. Sean Hughes is here to share with CAPC in terms of where we're at and the direction we're heading in order to find alignment
- Sean Hughes shares PowerPoint titled – Monterey County's Comprehensive Prevention Planning (CPP) Process a presentation to the Monterey County Child Abuse Prevention Council (CAPC)
- There is lots of overlap in the work we're doing with CAPC Vision, Mission, programs and CAPC focus
- Presentation will begin at a high level with an overview of Federal Law called the Family 1st Prevention Services Act – The PowerPoint will be shared with everyone to have this presented information as a reference.
- AGENDA:
 - Overview of FFPSA

- Gap Analysis + CPP Review
- CPP Implementation Preview
- Alignment with CAPC Mission/Vision
- Council engages in Q & A throughout presentation
- Discussion around CAPC's role in this work – August 4th brought back for discussion

April Child Abuse Prevention Month –

- Served over 500 Spanish speaking families through Let's talk/The Child events
- CAPC Website has summary of everything from Child Abuse Prevention Month

Strategic Planning –

- Ongoing discussion will continue in August meeting

CAPC Website –

- Need Council group to provide data point to list on website
- Reviewed examples of data points that should be on website
- Every member come up with 1 – 10 data points to consider by August meeting

Volunteering with CAPC –

- Received an inquiry from a professional interested in volunteering as support in CAPC events – up for future discussion

Saturday October 18, 2025 Event –

- Dr. Close requested CAPC participate in the Monterey Peninsula School District event for a Back-to-School on how to keep kids from getting stressed out. There will be 3 thirty-minute subgroups, they want to build on what CAPC is doing with Safe Tech. Claudia Gomez and Andy Rosas can look at the existing curriculum that is already developed and provide feedback.
- 9am – 12pm

Announcements –

- Eva Jeronimo suggests assigning an alternate for Ginger in the Interagency Leadership Team (ILT) June 18, meeting. Claudia Gomez and Steve Duran are interested in being considered for Alternate. All please reach out via e-mail or phone to Ginger by Friday if interested. Vote will be cast if more than one interested.

Colleen Stanley adjourns this meeting at 5:04pm, next meeting is on August 4, 2025.
