Structure to guide and track our prevention efforts

Dr. Marni Sandoval begins discussion about identifying structure for CAPC board to guide and track prevention efforts particularly by protective factors as outlined by the CDC.

- CDC-Protective Factors for Child Abuse and Neglect
 - I. Individual Protective Factors
 - II. Family Protective Factors
 - III. Community Protective Factors
- All bullets are worthy causes
- From an equity standpoint accept the CDC data and evaluate it through a lens of equity and decide the areas of focus as a prevention council.

Propose a motion for council to adopt the CDC protective factors as the beginning of the development of a strategic plan for our council's focus and planning around our efforts and ability to track outcomes in our efforts. Julia Altman motions to approve. Laura Neal seconds. M/S/C.

Any additional items for discussion or other announcements? Hearing none. Thank you everyone for being present and joining us today, so that we had a quorum to have our meeting today.

Next meeting Monday, December 6th at 3:30pm via zoom.

4:22 p.m. Officially adjourn our CAPC meeting for the month of October by Chair Marni Sandoval.
